ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

14 January 2013

Dear Sir or Madam,

Thank you for your interest in the Archaeological Society of Alberta, Calgary Centre.

Members of the Society receive regular newsletters about new events in Alberta archaeology, field trips, and meeting times and topics. Membership also includes a subscription to the "Alberta Archaeological Review" which is published twice yearly, in the spring and fall.

The Society holds regular meetings throughout the fall and winter. They are on the third Wednesday of every month and are held at the University of Calgary. Advanced notice of the speakers, topics and location of lectures is communicated through our regular newsletters.

All memberships are for one year and expire on the first of September.

The membership fees are: $20 for Students $25 for Individuals $35 for Family $50 for Corporate

We welcome you to become a member of the Archaeological Society of Alberta – Calgary Centre. To join, please complete the form below and send it, along with a cheque, attention to the Treasurer to the address above.

Thank you again for your interest and we hope to meet you soon.

Regards,

The Executive of the Archaeology Society of Alberta Calgary Centre
